

“Suddenly, Death was thrown down violently to the mat and Life arose victoriously. She was Destined For Life and He came in His resurrection power, reached into her mind, and began the long healing process on the journey to a full recovery.”

- SDDL Book Excerpt -

This story is passionate! It is extreme! It is reality! It journeys through pulsating twists and turns like a roller coaster on speed as the storyline unfolds. Is death really imminent? Against all hope, is there really hope?

An evil looking finger points at her from out of the pitch black, eerie darkness. It's emerald green eyes glaring as it says, "You are mine!" Will it have its way? The injury should have done her in. The seven years of mental illness and her brain cells starting to die should have been the final straw. In addition to this, through out the years, the asthma, the fibrocystic disease, the scoliosis, the pain, the hallucinations, the traumas, and the fear seemed to be some part of an evil plot of a twisted and ominous plan designed from hell, itself. What was that creature with the pointed finger?

It's not science fiction! It really happened! On the big screen...coming soon!

TELL MY PEOPLE I LOVE THEM!

SDDL Book Foreword

“There is a saying in Yorkshire England, ‘It is better felt than telt,’ which means if you can experience something, it has a greater value than talking about it. This book is such an experience! The Janiece Turner-Hartmann story is about a true God given miracle! Written by her husband, Joseph, after years of walking with the miracle and living with the miracle, he decided to document it for all; so that others could believe that God is a miracle worker in the every day people, as He always has been and always will be.

I first met Janiece nearly 20 years ago, when she first came into our fellowship, one mid-week meeting. I have been privileged, with my wife, to watch the ongoing miracle ever since. She is modern proof of the ability of the Lord to heal, deliver and work His grace deep within a person’s life. She is still the loudest person during a message, having never lost her joy and wonder at the amazing grace of her God. Her journey still continues, her hope still burns bright and her testimony continues to thrill.

This book, written in depth and with consistent detail, will at the least inspire you. It will bless you and will open your heart to all the possibilities of a life touched by a living God.

Who knows what miracles are awaiting all whose hearts are open to the potential of the God of Janiece. He is your God too!”

Comments & Testimonies

“What an exciting adventure. Looking forward to all the new posts and future products. I thoroughly enjoyed your book. I could not put it down as I read the catastrophic events which set things in motion for your lives. The fact that you lived through such a challenge is proof that the best days are yet to be had. I found your book insightful, humorous, generously honest and a huge message of hope. I recommend it to all. It touched my heart in the deepest place. You have lived through more than most even imagine...HOPE! Such a message of HOPE and truly a story of BEAUTY FOR ASHES!”

Deborah LaCour

“What a blessing and privilege to have Janiece in my life as a friend and sister in Christ. It has been an amazing journey over the years to witness the transformation of a woman in body, mind and spirit, through the mercy, grace and healing of Jesus Christ and the tenacity of a woman, who refused to stop short of all that God had for her...”

Christa Edwards

“As I read the manuscript of Janiece’s story, I was in awe. I will be 65 this year and I have traveled to far places, known many people, experienced many things, but I was struck with the thought. ‘I have never known anyone with so much to overcome.’ This is a glorious testimony of the resurrection power of Christ Jesus to completely transform a precious life. Romans 12:2 and 2 Corinthians 3:18 in action!”

Donna Blevins Burttschell

“Janiece is a true wonder of the miraculous power & love of God the Father. He gave her life back after she had almost died and began a gradual process of restoration. She had to learn to see herself as a woman, a person of value, and one that had been completely forgiven of her past. The Church women began to work with her and the Lord blossomed her inner man into a beautiful rose, full of compassion and mercy for others, a zeal for God and a passion for a full and rich life. The work of Christ continues, her humility, patience with new believers and servant heart are the real treasures of life that Pastors and the people of God long to see develop and mature in His children. She is a true treasure of the faithfulness of our loving Father in Heaven and she will always have the respect and admiration of my family, the Church she serves and of her family.”

Mike Paxton
Great Grace International

“Giggles, playing, sharing secrets, late night talks, exploring life’s events, and being best friends come with sharing a bedroom while growing up.”

“We came so very close to losing you.”

“Praise God! Through His grace, here we are still doing the same thing.”

“I love you, my precious sister.”

Deborah Turner-Ursell

“I have known Janiece and Joseph since 1994. I had heard some of her testimony and attended their wedding. Until I read the book I didn’t know the rest of the story. If you have had doubts about what God can or will do, this book will change your mind. In every area Janiece gives the glory, honor and victory to our Lord Jesus Christ for her healing, deliverance and restoration. This is a story of love; Janiece’s love for God and God’s love for His children.”

Pat Navarro

“Something we remember about Janiece is how God changed her whole countenance. Her facial features were changed to totally feminine in just a few short months. It was awesome to see God in action.”

Jerry & Lu Tipton

“In 1991, I was working at Villa Rosa, an adult psych facility. I worked the ‘pool,’ so I was usually on a different unit each day. One day I met Janiece. She had short hair, baseball cap, white t-shirt, old jeans, tennis shoes, and a look on her face that said, ‘Leave me alone! Don’t talk to me! I hate your guts!’ I don’t remember much more about Villa Rosa except that I worked on her unit a few times and we talked. A few weeks later, I ran into her at church, (San Antonio Christian Fellowship). She still had the ball cap, t-shirt, jeans and tennis shoes, but the ‘...I hate your guts!’ look was gone. I think in its place was a look that said, ‘Oh crap, it’s that guy.’ I was glad to see her, but didn’t think much of it at the time. The next Sunday, I noticed the ball cap was gone! Each Sunday after, something else was different. Her physical appearance and her countenance were changing. Then, one Saturday, she walked into church...her hair was fixed, she was wearing a dress, her face was glowing, and Joseph was walking with her. The two of them were holding hands and had these ‘cute little smiley faces.’ (Their wedding) It was a very moving sight. Puts a smile on my face. I know this is quite long, but I needed to write it and relive it. My testimony is simple: When needed the most, and expect it the least, God shows how special we are.”

Jim Autry

“I first met Janiece in the 80’s. I was a server at a Jim’s Restaurant. She would come in at lunch time after her doctor appointment. At first all the servers were scared of her. She was a scared little girl who was badly hurt. They never gave her a chance. I remember asking her what happened to her arm. She told me. Many years later she walked back in my life a different person. She had found a better life for herself, a wonderful man, and a beautiful son. Her whole life changed for the better. She found God and he changed her life. You would not know it was the same person.”

P.J. Ramos

“I have only known Janiece for a few years. In Christian fellowship groups it is sometime difficult to get to know people really well. Everyone, out of consideration for one another, tends to have a concept of church and the unspoken code of conduct. I am a rebel of sorts and have become less inhibited as I grow older. I can think of several times when I was a little bit outside the norm and could have been misunderstood by some, but not by Janiece. Janiece never misunderstands me, but to the contrary, she gets me. She is always positive and encouraging. She never fails to mention her love for me and remarkably, I believe it as truth. I think this truth she shares with everyone. What a powerful impartation of God’s love.”

Vicky Beauchamp

“Janiece would always encourage me and be so happy to see me. She had a big smile on her face for everyone and her love for God was and is so obvious. She is a good role model of showing the love of Jesus to those around her.”
